Year 12 Trial HSC Examinations and Practical Major Works

Dear Year 12 parents/carers and students,

With the Premier's announcement to extend online learning for students in the Greater Sydney area until 30 July, a decision has been made to reschedule the Year 12 Trial HSC Examinations. This decision was based on health and NESA advice and the situation will continue to be monitored.

The Year 12 Trial HSC Examinations will now be in Weeks 5 and 6 of Term 3, Monday 9 August to Friday 20 August 2021.

Students will also be advised of this decision via their Google Classroom and Connect sessions.

At this stage, NESA have advised that there are no changes to the due dates of major works. Starting Week 2, from Monday 19 July, students completing work on practical major works will have an opportunity to attend school at scheduled times. Their teacher will be available at these times to support them. This schedule will continue in Week 3.
